

With so many available member benefits, it's hard to choose just a few.

Below are some of the top-rated programs and opportunities our members have identified as their favorites.

Rediscover your CTCPA membership!

Learn more at www.ctcpas.org/MemberBenefits.

Stay ahead of issues and breaking news impacting business and the profession.

Be the first to know about critical issues and emerging trends with timely updates and insights to help you support your organization and advance your career.

Discover new ways to innovate, solve problems, and grow.

Dive into the latest trends in AI and technology, strategic planning, regulation and compliance, expansion of services, and much more to keep you ahead in a rapidly changing business environment.

Find a professional home with the CT Finance & Accounting Community (CTFAC).

You don't have to work in a CPA firm to belong at CTCPA. CTFAC is for professionals working inside companies, nonprofits, healthcare organizations, government agencies, education, and more.

Have a voice with legislators, regulators, and policymakers.

Ensure your voice is heard on critical regulatory and legislative issues and engage directly with officials on matters vital to you. Our Advocacy Updates bring you vital news on the profession and beyond.

Cultivate connections to grow your career and your business.

From special programs to dinners with the Department of Revenue Services to networking events with professionals in technology, law, banking, and more, foster the connections you need.

Develop the next generation of leaders with programs and events for new and young professionals.

Join peers in accounting and finance and beyond for leadership development, networking, community service, and fun events like cornhole and virtual golf.

Sharpen your team's expertise with innovative learning and professional development opportunities.

Choose flexible options with members-only savings up to 30%. Explore curated course collections tailored to career levels and professional focus areas.

Share your expertise or connect in a specialized group.

Exchange knowledge and advice as a member of a special interest group, serve as a member of the Advisory Council or Board of Directors, or serve as a speaker, author, or media source.

Ask tough questions and swap knowledge in our private online community.

Reach peers who can share how they're handling complex issues, and share your own expertise. Our state and federal tax groups are especially active.