Our Mission

Literacy Volunteers of Central CT is committed to transforming the lives of learners and their families using student-centered approaches that foster autonomy and promote language proficiency, career development, educational advancement, citizenship, and family literacy, so that, together, we may contribute to a strong and equitable community.

LVCC serves 17 towns:

New Britain, Middletown, Berlin, Bristol, Burlington, Cromwell, Durham, East Haddam, East Hampton, Haddam, Marlborough, Meriden, Middlefield, Plainville, Portland, Southington, and Wallingford.

WHAT WE DO

Volunteer tutors work with students in small groups of 1 to 4 to help them reach their personal goals while teaching them to read, write, speak English or improve math skills. Tutors offer life and work skills training, digital literacy instruction, citizenship preparation, conversation classes, math tutoring, and more.

FACILITIES

Our main office is in the New Britain Public Library. Students and tutors meet at libraries, work sites, schools, organizations, and public places throughout the 17 towns we serve.

FAMILY LITERACY

The Central CT Family Literacy Center, a collaboration among LVCC, New Britain Adult Education, and the YWCA New Britain, serves women with young children. Mothers receive child care while enrolled in weekly GED and ESL classes as well as parenting education classes. For more information: 860.225.4681 x 255
