The Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants (CTCPA) is the statewide professional membership association for present and future CPAs and accounting professionals.

We're here to support you with the resources you need to get your education, earn your CPA credential, and build a successful career.

Best of all, student membership is FREE!

Get resources and events to land internships and jobs.

We'll help you make connections and get hired. CTCPA Interview Day can connect you with up to 10 employers in one day, and we offer free programs on engaging LinkedIn, interviewing, crafting your resume, and more.

Find help to pay for school with scholarships and grants.

The CTCPA Accounting Scholarship Foundation awards $5,000 scholarships to community college and four-year college students, minority accounting majors, and students pursuing 150 credit hours to sit for the CPA Exam.

Engage and make new connections at fun events.

Membership earns you invitations to fun public service and social events with our New and Young Professionals Group – have a great time while making valuable connections and even impressing potential employers!

Get personalized help on the path to becoming a CPA.

We'll be with you every step of the way with discounts on CPA Exam review courses, help making sure you've fulfilled the requirements, and one-on-one guidance to help navigate the certification process.

Keep informed on real-world professional developments.

Our Student CONNECTION and other member news can help you understand and speak intelligently about industry trends, breaking news, and current challenges facing the accounting profession.

Who can join?

You can join if you're a full-time or part-time undergraduate or full-time graduate student at a Connecticut college; taking accounting courses; a resident of or attending college in Connecticut.
